Undertaking by The Private Hotel School

The Private Hotel School offers exceptional training and education in the Hospitality and related industries. We pride ourselves in being industry leaders in our profession. The Higher Education Act, (Act No 101 of 1997) and the regulations for registration of Private Higher Education Institutions, make it compulsory for private institutions offering full qualifications in higher education to register with the Department of Higher Education and Training (HEQSF Level 5-10). By complying with the requirements of The Higher Education act, The Private Hotel School ensures that all programmes on offer are of quality and aligned with national and international standards. Registered Private Higher Institutions are listed in the register and should have on display a certificate of registration as issued by the Department of Higher Education and Training. The registration certificate number of The Private Hotel School is 2010/HE07/005

In the belief that the quality of the services in education and training directly influences the nation and its citizens, TPHS exert every effort to raise professional standards, to promote a climate that encourages professional judgment, to achieve conditions that attract persons worthy of the trust to careers in hospitality & tourism and to assist in preventing the practice of the profession by unqualified persons.

Deregistration

A student may deregister for a programme under the following ruling:

1. A student shall advise TPHS in writing of his/her intention to cancel their registration in full or in part. No cancellation of registration shall be enforced or effected without written confirmation of the Director: Academic Development.
2. A student who cancels registration will normally incur financial liability in terms of fees according to the regulations as stated under the cancellation and refund policy on page 3.

Overview :

In the first year students receive an introduction to Hospitality as well as Culinary Arts. It is essential for all students to have a background of the kitchen as well as all the other aspects of the hospitality industry (Front Office, Food & Beverage Service, Rooms Division Operations, Human Resources, Event Planning). When commencing the second year, students choose an area of specialisation, either Hospitality Management or Culinary Arts. During the fourth semester, students do a six month Internship at a hotel or restaurant. We offer students direct access to some of the best hospitality institutions for their internships such as The Cape Grace Hotel, The Michelangelo, Fancourt Hotel & Spa, The Grand Roche Hotel, The Raphael and many more. Restaurants our students have been placed for their culinary internship include Clos Malverne, Overture, Terroir, Jordan, Mont Marie and Le Quartier Français.

Upon successful completion, students match the job profile of operational staff with supervisory and management responsibilities in the hospitality industry. Possible career options include Front Desk Manager, Concierge, Human Resources, Public/Guest Relations, Sales & Marketing and Food & Beverage Manager.
